Francis Johnston, Reg. Gen.
The petition of Thomas Stewardson on behalf of himself and the other trustees for the estate of Samuel Caldwell, surviving partner of James Meese, bearing date Philadelphia, 5th Month 17th 1799, stated as follows, viz. That a certain John Collins had in consequence of fraudulent deeds poll, obtained patents for two certain tracts of land, one situate in the county of Northumberland, surveyed to Samuel Caldwell in pursuance of a warrant dated in 1774; and the other situate now in Luzerne county, surveyed to said Caldwell by a warrant also dated in 1774—and requested that patents might be granted, for the said tracts, to William Crammond, Edward Tilghman, John Ashley, and Thomas Stewardson, trustees of the estate of Samuel Caldwell, surviving partner of James Meese, as the said two tracts were part of the estate of Meese and Caldwell.
Whereupon the Board having considered the same, ordered that at least sixty days notice be given in one of the Philadelphia newspapers, and in the Lancaster Journal to the said Collins or his assigns, to appear before the Board on the first Monday in October next, to shew cause if any he or they have, why patents should not issue for the said two tracts to the said trustees agreeably to the prayer of the said petition.

CONVIVIAL SONG.

Sung at WINDSOR (Ver.) on the evening of the FOURTH OF JULY.

Composed on the occasion—By R. TYLER.

TUNE—"Here's to our noble selves, Boys."

COME fill each brimming glass boys,
Red or white has equal joys.
Come fill each brimming glass, boys,
And toast your country's glory;
Does any here to fear incline,
And o'er Columbia's danger whine,
Why let him quaff this gen'rous wine,
He'll tell another story.

II.

Here's WASHINGTON, the brave, boys,
Source of all Columbia's joys,
Here's WASHINGTON, the brave, boys,
Come rise and toast him standing;
For here's the hero firm and brave,
Who all our country's glory gave,
And once again he shall us save,
Our armies bold commanding.

III.

Here's to the gallant Tar, boys,
Whose cannon's roar our foe annoys,
Here's to the gallant Tar, boys,
His country's cause defending:
For warlike TRUXTON's noble name,
Like Nelson's shall extend his fame,
And loud through all the earth proclaim,
His glory never ending.

IV.

Here's to our native land, boys,
Land of liberty and joys,
Here's to our native land, boys,
Your glasses raise for drinking;
And he that will not drink the toast,
May he in France of freedom boast,
There dangling on a lanterne post,
Or in the Loire be sinking.

V.

Here's to our Vermont Fair, boys,
Pledges bright of fed'ral joys.
Here's to our Vermont Fair, boys,
Fill high to love and beauty;
For while we toast their glowing charms,
Their virtue ev'ry bosom warms,
We'll die to guard them safe from harms,
It is a fed'ral duty.

VI.

Here's to Vermont state, boys,
And all her manly rustic joys,
Here's to Vermont state, boys,
Columbia's brave defender:
For while our pines ascend on high,
And while our mountains mock the sky,
Our independence, liberty,
We never will surrender.

VII.

Here's to the sage of Quincy, boys,
Legal head of all our joys
Here's to the sage of Quincy, boy,
Who guards us while we're drinking:
For while we quaff the boozy wine,
And sense and tipsy mirth combine—
With temp'rate head he sits sublime,
And for our good is thinking.

VIII.

Now come join hand in hand, boys,
Mystic type of fed'ral joys,
Now come join hand in hand boys,
Like brother, brother greeting;
For while our union we pursue,
'Tis I and he, and you and you,
Our pleasure all may yet renew,
At our next fed'ral meeting.

ELECTION.

THE Grand Jury for the County of Delaware, at July Sessions 1799, impressed with the importance of selecting a suitable character to succeed the present Governor, at the ensuing Election, whose attachment to the Constitution and Government of the United States, would be likely to insure a just, impartial and decisive administration, and having full confidence in the integrity, patriotism and talents of JAMES ROSS, Esq. of Pittsburgh, do therefore unanimously recommend him to the suffrages of our fellow Citizens of Delaware county.

Aug. 8.

At a numerous and respectable meeting of the Citizens of Philadelphia and the liberties thereof, held at Dunwoody's in the city of Philadelphia on Tuesday the 13th inst. for the purpose of fixing upon a suitable person to fill the IMPORTANT office of GOVERNOR of this State, the following Resolutions were unanimously adopted, viz.

Resolved, as the sense of this meeting, That it is essential to the honor and the happiness of Pennsylvania, and highly important to the best interests of the United States, that, at the ensuing election of governor of this commonwealth, the suffrages of our fellow citizens should be given to a candidate who, combining the requisites of talents and integrity with temperance of character and independence of connexion, will ably and faithfully execute the trusts of that high station, who conciliating the particular interests of the state with the general interests of the United States, will cordially cultivate the necessary intercourse with the Federal Government; and who, having never avowed himself the partizan of foreign politics, will be at perfect liberty to pursue the exclusive advantage of his own country.

Resolved, as the sense of this meeting, That JAMES ROSS, of Pittsburg, unites, in an eminent degree, the requisites, expressed in the preceding resolution, to fill the high office of Governor of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania; and that this meeting being justified in their opinion by the uniform tenor of his private and public conduct, will give him their best support at the ensuing election.

And whereas certain persons, who are desirous of imposing another candidate on the citizens of Pennsylvania, far from imitating the laudable example which had been given by the friends of Mr. Ross, of carefully abstaining from all illiberality of opinion, have attempted to aid their purpose by false and indecent insinuations that their opponents are influenced by unworthy motives, and as silence, under such censure, might be tortured into a concession of its truth:

Resolved, as the sense of this meeting, that the corresponding committee heretofore appointed, be instructed to prepare an address to our fellow citizens throughout the state, on the subject of said election, wherein, if they shall deem it necessary or useful to defeat the projects of our antagonists, they shall be at liberty freely to examine and discuss the merits of the opposite candidate, and the pretensions of those persons, who thus presume to assign improper motives to the conduct of others; and that, unawed by official character, or by any other consideration, the individuals who compose this meeting will aid the examination and discussion, if they shall be resolved on, by supplying every necessary information, whether it shall tend to expose the inability or defects of the opposite candidate; or to illustrate and explain the characters of those individuals who style themselves his supporters, and who have thus dared, under their signatures, to impeach the integrity of their opponents.—And in adducing this information (Mr M'Kean's services as a judge being much relied on) it may be necessary to resort to the remonstrances of Juries, and the representations of the Bar, to expose his judicial tyranny and intolerance, or to the deliberate declarations of political wishes and opinions which, if realized, would subvert the liberty, the religion, and the social order of our country.

Or, in discussing the pretensions of those men who have thus falsely stigmatized their opponents, it may be necessary to recur to Proclamations which have proscribed some of them as TRAITORS—to examine dockets to have the most disgraceful allegations against others—to enquire into the equivocal circumstances which cloud the late coming of others of them to America, who, like birds of ill omen, have made their appearance among us since the revolution, and who now dare to question the motives of men who hazarded all that was dear to them in establishing the Independence of America. The committee are requested, if they are resolved to recriminate, to give to all the facts which they may state, such solemn sanctions as will stamp conviction on the minds of whoever may peruse them.

ROBERT WHARTON. Chairman.

After which, taking into consideration the propriety of nominating a candidate for the office of Senator of this state, for the district composed of the city and county of Philadelphia, and county of Delaware, it was unanimously resolved,

That this meeting will support JOSEPH BALL, Esq. at the ensuing election, as the Senator for the said district.

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to attend a meeting to be held in the county of Philadelphia, and a committee of three to attend a meeting to be held in the county of Delaware for the purpose of representing to the said meetings the determination of this meeting to support Joseph Ball, Esq. as Senator, and to desire a co-operation on their part, when

Mr. Levy Hollingsworth, Mr. Henry Pratt, and John Hallowell, Esq. were appointed to attend the meeting in the county of Philadelphia, and

Mr. John Wall, Mr. Jesse Sharpless, and Michael Keppele, Esq. were appointed to attend the meeting in the county of Delaware.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the different German and English newspapers throughout the state, signed by the Chairman and countersigned by the Secretary.

(Signed) ROBERT WHARTON, Chairman.

Attest, JOHN EWING, Secretary.

NORTHERN LIBERTIES.

The Members of the Corresponding Committee, appointed at a meeting of the friends of Mr. Ross, will take notice that they are to meet every Thursday evening at 7 o'clock at Robert Meldrum's tavern in the Northern Liberties, where the several ward committees are respectfully requested to attend.

Aug. 6

Those Citizens of Delaware County, who are desirous that JAMES ROSS, of Pittsburgh, should succeed the present Governor, are requested to meet at the Black Horse, in the township of Middletown, on the 17th day of Aug. next at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, in order to consult on measures to promote his election.

HUGH LLOYD, Chairman,
of the Corresponding Committee of Delaware county.

July 30, 1799.

At a numerous and respectable meeting of the freemen of the townships of Oxford, Lower Dublin, Byberry and manor of Moreland, held the 10th inst. at the house of John Sager, in Bustleton, for the purpose of fixing on a suitable character to be run for governor at the ensuing election;—

The meeting having taken into consideration the genuine republican principles of James Ross, Esq. of Pittsburgh; his warm attachment to our Constitution, and known impartiality respecting all foreign Governments;

Resolved unanimously, That they will, by all fair and candid means in their power, support him with their votes and interests for the office of chief magistrate.

Resolved, that in order to assist in promoting this desireable object, a committee, consisting of two persons from each township, be appointed in this district to correspond with other committees already appointed for that purpose.

Resolved, That Messrs. Frederick Caster, John M'Clellan, Thomas Paul, William Lardner, Joshua Comely, Edward Duffield, jun. Benjamin Walmsly, and Evan Townsend, be a committee agreeable to the foregoing resolve.

Late Foreign Articles

NEW-YORK, August 14.

By the Jane, arrived yesterday from St. Thomas's, we received Antigua papers, containing London dates to the 12th June, inclusive, The foreign advices not before detailed in the Daily Advertiser, we copy—they follow:

RATISBON, May 22.

It is now three months since private letters from Russia announced that the Swedish fleet of flat bottomed vessels would join the Russian galley fleet, which was to sail upon a certain expedition in the course of June. Sweden has also recalled its Ambassador from Paris, and the declaration since made by the King of Sweden to the Diet shews, that these measures were preconcerted long ago.

The 45,000 Russians, who march into Austria, will be employed against the French conquests on the Lower Rhine, &c. it being the interest of England that pays those troops to have the enemy attacked in those parts.

SECOND PROCLAMATION

Of General Suwarow to the Inhabitants of Piedmont.

Sensible of the necessity of establishing public order in these provinces, happily re-conquered by the combined Austro-Russian forces, and considering it as a duty not only to watch over the distribution of justice, but also to maintain in activity all the branches of public œconomy and administration, on the footing and according to the system established by the late government of his Majesty the King of Sardinia, we order as follows:

1st. The laws and political and civil establishments which existed before the order of things which has just ceased, are to remain in force. 2dly. Lieutenant General Baron Latour is invested by us with the most extensive powers, to make all the dispositions he shall think necessary, as well in the military as in the civil and œconomical departments, and appoint persons who shall be deemed, on account of their probity and talents, the fittest to fill the places. 3dly. The persons appointed by Lieutenant General Baron Latour, shall exercise all the functions entrusted to them, conformably to the ascertained laws and establishments; and in unforeseen cases they shall act as may be most expedient for maintaining public order.—4thly. The dispositions relative to the financial department, and the extinction of the public debt at present existing, shall continue to be observed; however, until it shall be otherwise ordained, the circulation and issuing of royal notes bearing interest, shall be suspended.

Head-Quarters at Volhera,
the 8th of May, 1799.
Alexander Suwarow Rimnisky.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 10.

The Grand Vizier sets out from hence on the 20th instant. The Selim, of 120 guns, carries him to the coast of Asia, with a squadron of 21 ships of the line and two frigates. The rendezvous of the troops whom the Grand Vizier will farther take with him, is to be at Scotari. General Kochler, Major Franklin, and other English officers, will accompany him.

The Porte has some time back invited all brave Mussulmen to rise in a mass against the French,

LONDON, June 11.

It is a circumstance not less curious than true, that such is the disposition of the Spaniards towards their Republican Allies, that when Lord St. Vincent thought it necessary to send a dispatch, to Lisbon, announcing the arrival of the French fleet off Cadiz, it was forwarded by the Spaniards with more speed than they are in general accustomed to employ in the conveyance of dispatches.

Since our last, two of the Hamburgh mails have arrived—that which came to hand yesterday put it beyond dispute, that the accounts received on Sunday of a bloody battle fought near Alessandria on the 13th of May, was premature; but subsequent intelligence makes amends for the disappointment.

In Switzerland, just as we suspected, the progress of the Austrians has been completely such, as the French Directory, who must have garbled Massena's dispatches, would wish should not be known. It appears there was a severe battle on the 28th, the consequence of which was, that the whole French army fell back, and left Zurich entirely uncovered; which city, private letters say, was taken possession of by the Austrians on the 31st of May. The posts occupied by the French according to the last accounts were simply such as might enable Massena to protect the French frontier till reinforcements arrive.

COURT OF KING'S BENCH.

JUDGMENT AGAINST LORD THANET AND Mr. FERGUSON.

At half past ten the Marshal appeared in court with his prisoners. The Attorney General informed the Court, that he had received his Majesty's command to issue Nolle Prosequi with respect to the conviction, on the 1st, 2d, and 3d, counts of the indictment. There being doubts entertained respecting the subject, accordingly he had issued that writ, which cleared the defendants from the most crimnal part of the conviction; but he was ordered by the King to crave judgment upon the 3d and 4th counts, for a riot to disturb the King's Court of Justice.

Judge Grose immediately addressed the prisoners, and after a speech of twelve minutes, which for impressiveness, and legal disquisition, was perhaps never exceeded, passed judgment—Upon Sackville, Earl Thanet, a fine of £1000, a year's imprisonment in the Tower, sureties for seven years: himself in £10,000, and two others in £5000 each. Robert Ferguson, Esq. a fine of £100, one year's imprisonment in the King's Bench, and to give security for seven years, himself in £500, and two others in £250 each.

The Duke of Bedford, Earl Derby, and Sir Francis Burdett attended Earl Thanet, but not a word was said, except by the Attorney General and Judge Grose.

June 12.

Finding the Spanish Cadiz fleet will not, or at least had not followed the Brest squadron, the French papers are daily employed in fabricating excuses for its non-arrival at Toulon. Among others, they report it has been forced into Carthagena by stress of weather, where they say it is reparing.

We believe the Spaniards are very desirous the English should keep a squadron off Cadiz, to afford them a pretext for keeping in port.

Other letters detail very obstinate engagements near Magano, on the 18th of May, in which the French attacked and fought with great bravery, but were overcome at last, lost 5000 men in killed and wounded, and 3000 prisoners. The Imperialists, with the Piedmontese insurgents, took the town and citadel of Turin.

The Court Gazette of Vienna, May 29, is silent respecting the above victory of the 11th of May, but it is given so circumstantially by private letters which come in a direct course thro' Germany, that it may be expected Government will speedily receive the official statements of the fact, in addition to those which relate to the French in Switzerland.

We further learn from the London Gazette of last night, which contains a short dispatch from Sir Morton Eden, of one day later date than the accounts from Vienna, by the Mails, that the citadel of Milan surrendered on the 24th ultimo. Ferrara, Casale and Ceva, have also been taken.—Thus we are enabled to account for the retreat of Moreau to Coni, who by this time it is probable, has been driven entirely out of Piedmont; unless, he should have succeeded in forming a junction with Macdonald, which, however, would be the more difficult to effect, as the allies have advanced so near to the Genoese frontier as Ceva.

The defeat of the French in Syria appears to be at length officially confirmed by letters from Constantinople of a very late date.

Orders were on Monday issued from the War Office, signed by the Secretary at War, to the relations and friends of non commissioned officers and soldiers, that all enquiries relative to the existence or death of non commissioned officers or soldiers may, in future, be made either by letter or personally, free from all expence of postage or other charges whatsoever.

The Herald of this morning says, the Royal pardon for the Earl of Thanet, and Mr. Ferguson, passed the Great Seal yesterday, and this day they are expected to be enlarged from their respective places of confinement.

The Dublin Evening Post of Saturday, last, received this morning, states as follows:—

"Thursday se'night, Lord Bridport, with his whole fleet, got under weigh—and on Friday morning they were all clear off Misen head, steering S. with the wind N. W."

The following order to Col. Strauch, is a specimen of laconic style in which Field Marshal Suwarrow sends his military orders.—"Immediately after receiving these dispatches, you are to break up, with four battalions, to stop the French in the Valteline, and to take fort Truentes. This order was successfully obeyed.

ST. JOHNS, (Antigua) July 18.

The English papers, by the Mail which arrived yesterday, contains very copious details of the proceedings of the armies on the continent, particularly that under Gen. Suwarrow in Italy; all of them highly favourable to the Allies.

The Archduke Charles, it appears, had entered Switzerland with his army, where every thing promised the happiest event to his exertions.

Tortona, the key of Piedmont, was in the hands of one of Suwarrow's Generals. It must be recollected that Piedmont has for a length of time been in a state of Insurrection against the French, and may therefore be expected to join the Austrians and Russians against the common enemy.

The Account of Moreau's being taken in the engagement with Suwarrow appears unfounded, subsequent Accounts from the seat of War stating, that he was then retiring by forced Marches with about 8000 men, the shattered remains of his army.

To the above may be added the reduction of Milan, where the allies were received with open arms by the Inhabitants.

BOSTON, August 10.

The news from Europe reaches us with progreſſive, though ſnail-like pace. We give this day, London dates, by arrivals at Caſtine and New-York, a few days later than before received.

The ſeries of Imperial ſucceſſes are as uninterrupted, and their aſpect as brilliant, as thoſe of Buonaparte were on the ſame theatre, in 1797. Ere this, it is highly probable, every Frenchman's foot, from the North to the Mediterranean ſeas, has made impreſſions within his native boundaries, with its toes inwards.

The capture of Genoa, heretofore announced on the credit of report, is now eſtabliſhed on official reſponſibility.

Of General Macdonald's army—if its deſtruction is not authentically pronounced; its fate is almoſt as certain as hopes and wiſhes have anticipated; and his name will ſpeedily be conſigned to the oblivion of Jourdan's, or to the ignomy which is attached to Scherer's.

The French once had an army denominated the "Army of England"—The Engliſh it ſeems, are preparing a force, which ſpeedily may juſtly be called the "Army in Holland." They certainly poſſeſs the nerves and tendons of war; for although the current expenſes of 1799 are eſtimated at thirty millions ſterling, ſo popular is the war againſt France, that Mr. Pitt can raiſe this, and much larger ſums, with as much apparent facility, as though he were maſter of the mines of Peru or Brazil; or had found the long-ſought Philoſopher's ſtone.

Sweden enters on the belligerent ſtage in the fifth act—She is perhaps, ſolicitous of ſharing in the honours of the denoeument; and of aſſiſting to cloſe the drama with applauſe.

17th JULY CELEBRATION.

The Preſident of the United States, in a private letter, ſpeaking of the celebration of the 17th of July, by the citizens of Boſton, ſays —"The Young Men of Boſton do honor to their education, their parents and their country; and in the celebration of that day were excited by the pureſt motives, and governed by the beſt principles."

NEW-YORK, Auguſt 14.

Capt. Dedera, of the ſchooner Union, informs, that the ſhip that occaſioned the diſperſion of the fleet, was a frigate of 44 guns, and paſſed ſo near the Union, that he could ſee their manœvres quite plain. Capt. D. is convinced ſhe was an enemy ſhip; for he ſaw her man her boat, and let down a gun into her, which was placed in her bow, for the purpoſe no doubt, of taking defenceleſs veſſels. It is fortunate, however, that night came on before ſhe could have made many captures, which enabled moſt of the fleet to get out of her reach.

When the above frigate firſt entered the fleet, ſhe had Engliſh colours flying, but hauled them down, and did not ſhew any others.

Capt. Bainbridge informs, that the next morning he collected 80 of the ſcattered veſſels, which he convoyed ſafe to our coaſt; and it is highly probable, that the Retaliation got together ſeveral others—But there is room to believe that the frigate made ſome captures.

The following has been handed to us in conſequence of the publication in our laſt, recommending the uſe of Yeaſt in putrid diſeaſes:

Copy of a receipt for making Yeaſt, taken many months ago from an Engliſh Paper.

YEAST—This uſeful article, of which there is frequently a ſcarcity in this country is thus prepared on the coaſt of Perſia:—Take a ſmall tea-cup, or wine glaſs full of ſplit or bruiſed peas, pour on it a pint of boiling water, and ſet the whole in a veſſel all night on the hearth, or any other warm place; the water will have a froth on its top the next morning, which will be good yeaſt.

Mr. Eton, when in Perſia, had his bread made with this yeaſt, and in the Engliſh manner, of good wheat flour. In our cold climate, eſpecially in a cold ſeaſon, it ſhould ſtand longer to ferment, perhaps four and twenty hours. Of all methods of making Yeaſt hitherto known, this is by far the moſt ſimple and commodious.

Letters from Madrid, ſtate that the Council of Caſtille has recognized and publiſhed a Bull of the Pope, which, in conſequence of pecuniary retributions, authorizes all the Spaniards to eat meat every day in the year, except during Ember Week, and the Thurſ- and Friday of Holy Week. It is alſo ſaid, that his Holineſs has granted to his Catholic Majeſty the power of appropriating to himſelf all the tithes of his kingdom. This operation of finance would be at once the moſt advantageous, the moſt practicable and the beſt calculated to draw away the embarraſſments in which the Spaniſh treaſury is at preſent involved, particularly by the interruption of trade between Spain and America.

During the guſt on Sunday evening laſt about 9 o'clock, a ſmall ſail boat, with three young lads in it, was upſet oppoſite Buſhwick Creek. Their cries were heard by Mr. Collier, who immediately put off in the dark to relieve them, butwas only in time to ſave one of the boys, whom he found clinging to an oar almoſt periſhed. The other two muſt have been drowned. We could not learn their names, as the lad who was taken up was not ſufficiently recovered to communicate particulars.

GOSHEN, (New-York) Aug. 6.

Laſt week were brought to this town FOUR of the Money making gentry, from the upper part of this county, with a part of their coining apparatus, which was found in a cedar ſwamp at New-Shawanknok, where they carried on their buſineſs—they were examined by two of the Judges of this county, and commited to priſon—one of them turned ſtate's evidence. and it is probable that there is yet a number of theſe fellows lurking about this county, we hope no exertions will be ſpared by the citizens of Orange County, to detect and bring them to juſtice. In the pocket of one of them was found thirty four counterfeit dollars, which it is ſuppoſed were made the morning they were detected (Sunday) as they were very bright and two men was ſo near as to hear them at work —

On the night of Sunday, the 21th ulimo, James Steel, put an end to his life by hanging himſelf—The reaſon of his becoming his own executioner we know not—he was a perſon who would get intoxicated whenever he could get liquor, put if we are rightly informed, he was very ſober the evening he took his exit.—This is the fourth perſon who have come to an untimely end by their own hands within afew miles of this place, in the courſe of the laſt three or four months.

Extract from the minutes of the Board of Health, 6th mo. 14th, 1799.

The neceſſity of adopting ſome ſtrenuous meaſures to prevent the intercourſe by boats both from the city and the Jerſey ſhore, and alſo for that of preventing the ſailors ſtraggling from veſſels under quarantine or leaving the ſhip during her paſſage up the Delaware; being under conſideration: It was reſolved, that the phyſician and quarantine maſter, be directed to require of the maſter or other perſon or perſons on board every veſſel under quarantine on his or their oaths or affirmations whether, any perſon has been on board of the veſſel during the time ſhe lay under quarantine, and alſo whether any perſon has been on ſhore by ſwimming or otherwiſe, and that they inform the maſters of the veſſels under quarantine, that if they by any means ſhall elude this queſtion they will be proſecuted, and that, even by their own confeſſion it ſhall appear that any communication was had with the ſhore by either of the above means, that unleſs they give immediate information of the circumſtance and detain the offender on board the veſſel until the phyſician and quarantine maſter ſhall take charge of him or them; that the veſſel will be detained under quarantine for a longer period than that preſcribed by law.

As the few caſes of the Yellow Fever which took place in this city this ſeaſon were generally ſaid to have been communicated from the ſhip General Wayne, we hope the utmoſt attention will be paid to all veſſels arriving from infected places. The detention of a veſſel at Staten Iſland for a few days may be termed a performance of quarantine, but if the cargo is not properly aired, and the veſſel ventilated and purified from all noxious exhalations or diſagreeable ſmells, ſuch quarantine will be totally uſeleſs, productive of no eſſential good, but injurous to the owners and the concerned. However ſtrong viſionary Theorists may inſiſt that there is no neceſſity for quarantine laws, nor no reaſon to fear contagion, yet it is dangerous to rely upon their aſſurances. Our atmoſphere during the heat of the ſummer months is too fruitful a ſoil to have it impregnated with the ſeeds of the foreign peſtilence. That the epidemics which have ſo repeatedly ſcourged our ſea ports were generated from local cauſes, we do not attempt to deny; but as the importation of diſeaſe is poſſible, we have juſt cauſe to apply all the preventatives which human wiſdom can deviſe or circumſtances can allow to arreſt the progreſs of foreign diſeaſe towards our ſhores.

The extreme and tedioufneſs of laſt winter, added to the frigidity and backwardneſs of ſpring, migth lead us to expect that we would not be viſited by the fever this year. It is neceſſary to ſay we hope this idea may be realized, yet we are anxious that ſuch an expectation ſhould not induce the health officers and citizens to relax, a particle of that care and attention which is abſolutely neceſſary to annihilate, if poſſible, the domeſtic cauſes which may give birth to ſo dreadful an evil.

The London Marine Society, from its eſtabliſhment in 1756 to 1763, fitted ont and ſent on board his Majeſty's or the ſhips of Merchants, 5174 diſtreſſed and deſtitute boys, who were reſcued from probable deſtruction, and rendered not only uſefull to themſelves, but highly conducive to the glory and ſtrength of their country, which many of them would otherwiſe have contributed to deſtroy. From the year 1764 to the 31ſt of December 1798, the number of boys was encreaſed to 21,576, including 790, who having been diſcharged at the Peace, were again fitted out and apprentiſed by the Society, which to the ſame period fitted out 28,157 Landmen, who volunteered to ſerve in the Navy; making the total number amount to 49,733; whilſt the Governor of this highly and patriotic Inſtitution inſtructed in a ſhip near Debtford 100 boys (originally deſtitute as the reſt) not only in theoretical and practical Navigation, but in all the moral and religious duties.

The loſs we experienced during the American war in the number of Cavalry Videts which, in conſequence of being ſo much expoſed, were cut off by the Riflemen of the enemy, and which, at length, prevented our ſending any horſemen to reconnoitre, has ſuggeſted an idea which, whilſt it affords to the ſervice the material benefits reſulting from obſervation and expeditious report. The Cavalry horſes of ſome regiments have already been taught to lie down on a ſignal, and to riſe, with or without their riders by which means bruſh, wall, or inequality of ground which formerly would not even conceal even the legs of the horſe, will now protect both him and the ſoldier from the view of an enemy; added to which the animal is not only better reſted whilſt in this poſition, but when accuſtomed to it, feeds with infinite more eaſe than when his oat bag ſtands ſuſpended from his head.—The Ayrſhire Fencible Cavalry, in particular, practiſe this method, which Sir W. Howe is rendering general at Chelmsford, and throughout his diſtrict.

No expence has been spared in the publication; and I flatter myself that the work does not yield, either in paper or print, to any one ever published in America —— This edition has an advantage over some former ones, as it contains by way of notes, the minor productions of the author; and, it has an advantage over every other edition, in the Poetical Epistle, which is prefixed to it, and which must be extremely gratifying to every lover of literature in this country, as it is a proof that there are Americans who have the taste to admire the justice to applaud, and the talents to rival the Geniuses of other nations.

The Swift-Sure,

A NEW LINE OF STAGES,

NOW RUNNING BETWEEN

PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK,

By the short and pleasant road of Bustleton, Newtown, Scotch Plains, Springfield and Newark.

THE excellence of this road, the populousness of the country through which it passes, with sundry other advantages, which render it so far preferable to the Old Road through Bristol, Brunswick, &c. long ago suggested the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough-Fare from Philadelphia to New York. During the present year, a minute survey of it has been taken, and its superiority over the Old Road, both in winter and summer, has been clearly ascertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the crossing is performed with great safety and in less than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is several miles shorter than the old road, but this is amongst the least of its advantages, because daily experience proves to us, that dispatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodness of the road and the levelness of the country, and, in these respects, the New Road is, beyond all comparison, the best. It presents none of those rocky hills, which render the Old Road so fatiguing between the Delaware and Newark. The soil, too, for the greater part, is such as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little dust in summer, which circumstance, added to the beauty of the country, and a considerable proportion of shade, must always render travelling in the latter season peculiarly agreeable.

The Swift Sure starts from PHILADELPHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, opposite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth street. It goes through Frankford to Bustleton, where it stops to Breakfast; from Bustletown it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Penny-town through Hopewell, Millstone, Bound-brook, Quibbletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to lodge. The next morning it stops at Springfield to breakfast, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it starts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For seats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee house, to A. Mathieu, corner of Nassau and John streets, to B. Many, no. 48, Courtlandt, corner of Greenwich street, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad street.

Fare for passengers, Five Dollars.
Way passengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each passenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a passenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With respect to packages sent on without passengers, the proprietors presume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of stages, they think must meet with general approbation, They pledge themselves to make good every package on the following conditions. The person who delivers the package at the office shall see it entered in the stage-book, for which entry he shall pay 6 cents; he will then state the value of the package, and pay (exclusive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as insurance, and for which he will receive a receipt. Thus, for instance, if he estimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent. and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar insurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few persons it is presumed, will dislike this regulation; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himself of this security or not. But the proprietors think it right to state very explicitly, that they will be responsible for the safe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an insurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the distribution of the route, the greatest care has been taken to fix on such places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the passengers at the most reasonable rates The stages are well equipped furnished with fleet and steady horses, and committed to the care of intelligent sober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themselves live at the different towns and villages where the stages will stop, so that the conduct of the persons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care also to see that the passengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no sort of chicanery or insolence is practised upon them; in short, they have spared neither pains nor expence to render the SWIFT-SURE the very best line of stages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every passenger has found the road to surpass very far all that has been said of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviour of their drivers, and the treatment at Taverns spoken of with the highest satisfaction.

AT a meeting of the visitors and governors of St. John's college in the State of Maryland, on the 13th day of July 1799,

Resolved, That on the first day of October next, this board will proceed to elect a Professor of English and Grammar, who shall receive, for his services, at the rate of £200 per annum, to be paid quarterly; and that public notice thereof be given, &c. &c,

Test. A. C. HANSON.

N. B. The office aforesaid hath just become vacant, by the resignation of a gentleman, whose affairs require, the immediate undertaking of a voyage by sea.

It is the duty of the said Professor (to whom is allowed an assistant) to teach the English language grammatically, and to prepare students for a superior school, by teaching them the Latin grammar, the Vocabulary, and Cordery. Writing is to be taught to all his scholars at stated hours; and to those students who are not destined for the superior school, are to be taught, at the discretion of their parents, or guardians, Arithmetic, and other branches of science usually taught in English schools —A complete knowledge then of Latin, Arithmetic, &c. is considered indispensible in the professor; and it is expected, that candidates who are not known to the Board, will submit to an examination, as well as produce satisfactory testimonials of their good morals, and fair characters.

The Printers within the United States are requested to insert in their papers the foregoing resolution and remarks, and to repeat the publication, as often as convenience will admit, until the 20th day of September next.
